

South Asian Women's Centre Presents

Forced Marriage as a Form of Human Trafficking Training

Free training opportunity for Toronto service providers. The training will provide resources and techniques for helping survivors of domestic violence through means of forced marriage and human trafficking.

- Provide a specialized framework that looks at forced marriage as a form of human trafficking
- Captures the issue of domestic violence within Toronto communities and condition which can place women in exploitative circumstances in legal relationships
- Understand trafficking of immigrant and refugee women in forced marriage cases
- Gain access to resources and services aimed to support survivors

DATE: Monday March 23rd 2015

TIME: 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

LOCATION: South Asian Women's Centre, 800 Lansdowne Avenue, Toronto ON, M6H 4K3

Please register at: <http://tinyurl.com/nfogh4j> Or contact Marmitha Yogarajah (416-537-2276)

Light lunch and refreshments will be provided.

For more information, contact Manivillie Kanagasabapathy, Project Manager at mkanagasabapathy@sawc.org or Marmitha Yogarajah, Project Coordinator at myogarajah@sawc.org or at 416-537-2276

www.sawc.org